PROJECTS
Work is underway to support our two Instructors, Connor Clarke and Astrid Nøkleby, as they complete their training and apply to become Teacher Trainers. Efforts are also being made to establish a promotional platform for Suzuki Brass, with the aim of increasing visibility and awareness across Europe.
ITEMS FROM ISA BRASS STUDY GROUP
Progress of the Suzuki Trumpet School, Level 2 publication remains stalled. Although assurances have been given, the book has not yet entered the printing queue. Brass Groups The Trumpet group is continuing development of Levels 4 and 5 The Trombone group has revised its first prototype following internal review The Horn group is working on securing teaching materials, including transposed piano parts. Several tasks are underway and are making steady progress.
DEVELOPMENT OF BRASS IN ESA REGION
With the addition of a new Teacher Trainer in ESA, we anticipate further development in southern and central Europe, particularly within German-speaking regions. United Kingdom <ul style="list-style-type: none">• A Level 1 course is currently underway in London, representing an important step forward for the development of Suzuki Brass in the UK. Norway <ul style="list-style-type: none">• A Level 1 and Level 2 course will be held in Oslo. For the first time, a practising Instructor on trombone will serve as an assistant, and it is hoped this will stimulate increased interest in trombone. Italy, Austria, Norway and Sweden <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Functioning Suzuki Studios continue to operate in these countries.• In several regions, individual teachers are working with single students.
