

SUZUKI METHOD NEW TEACHER TRAINING COURSE FOR GUITARISTS

Lithuanian Suzuki Summer Camp Final Concert at the Birštono Kultūros Centras

Have you ever thought of becoming a qualified Suzuki guitar teacher?

Following a course led by a certified ESA (European Suzuki Association)

Teacher Trainer will allow you to receive complete training in the Suzuki approach in teaching young children to teenagers, and will furnish you with internationally recognized certification.

The 2024-2025 course will be based in Munich (Germany), although some of the classes will be planned online.

Official language: English
Additional languages spoken (Italian, French)

ESA Teacher Trainer:
Mauro Levrin Bianco

Are you interested in starting up a course in your own country?

Please feel free to write to suzukiguitartt2024@gmail.com.

We will be happy to provide all the necessary information.

Who can attend the course?

Anyone who has a degree in guitar performance from a professional music school, conservatory of music or university, or who has reached a satisfactory level in guitar performance, can apply to become a “Suzuki Guitar Teacher Trainee.”

What about the attendance fee?

All practical information will be clearly given to anyone interested in knowing more about the course structure and fees.

The Suzuki Method is a serious international organization, with detailed rules and thousands of members all over the world, so it is very transparent - you will never have to face hidden costs.

If you are interested in embarking on a wonderful and meaningful path which will really change your teaching and way of life, don't hesitate to email us at: suzukiguitartt2024@gmail.com
