

SUZUKI METHOD TRAINING COURSE FOR THE ESA MANDOLIN HABILITATION Levels 1 & 2

General information: The complete training course includes five Levels that can be attended in five years. To be qualified to teach with the Suzuki Method it is necessary to reach the third level. Each level includes 120 hours of lessons with compulsory attendance and a final exam.

Course duration: May 2023 - March 2024 (120 hours)

Objects of study: 1) Intensive study of Suzuki philosophy
2) The progressive study of the qualifying technical points of the repertoire and teaching psychology. 3) Observation of lessons held by the teacher trainer and therefore at least 24 hours of practiced and guided apprenticeship.
4) Readings and debates on the development of the child, with particular regard to the parent-child relationship.
5) Individual performances of the studied repertoire.

PURPOSE: The multi-year teacher-training course is addressed to Conservatory graduates but no less to all music teachers who intend to employ the Suzuki method for teaching children.

Requirements: for Suzuki levels 1 & 2:

- 1) mandolin degree
- 2) Other degrees or diplomas equivalent to the mandolin degree
- 3) Mandolin course attendance at a Conservatory of music or at an equivalent School
- 4) Diploma or Suzuki qualification (at least level 3) on another plucked instrument or violin (Conversion).

To apply for the course (point n. 2-3-4), it is necessary to send by April 30th 2023 a video with the following program:

Program: A.Vivaldi: an Allegro from a Mandolin Concerto;
R.Calace: a composition to be chosen from among the preludes, Piccola Gavotta or Cielo Stellato;
A piece of your choice

Level exams will be held in March 2024. Attendance is compulsory and admission to the exam is at the discretion of the teacher trainer.

Passing the Level exams entitles you to teach with the Suzuki methodology and to and ESA (European Suzuki Association) registers.
