

In January 2027, a complete Suzuki Teacher Training Course Level 1 for harp teachers will be launched for the first time in Germany. The course, led by Teacher Trainer Tiziana Loi, will be held in hybrid format, in accordance with the guidelines of the European Suzuki Association (ESA): lessons (approx. 6 weekends) will take place both in person and online (Zoom). The Level 1 course consists of 120 hours and, after 8–10 months, may lead to a final ESA examination.

The course will begin in January 2027 and end in October 2027.

Minimum number of participants: 5.

Registration deadline: December 20, 2026.

Please find below the expected course schedule:

- January 2027: 23–24
- February: 20–21
- March: 13–14, online lessons
- April: 24–25, online lessons
- July: 1–2–3, lessons and "Musica Insieme" Workshop
- July: 30–31
- August: 1
- Examination: October

Course content:

- In-depth study of the Suzuki philosophy and teaching method
- Pedagogical lesson observation and supervision of group and individual lessons
- Learning the Suzuki repertoire
- Insights into child development and the concept of education through music
- Exploration of the parent–child relationship
-

The course languages will be English and German.

Harp Teacher Trainer: Tiziana Loi

Course Assistant: Regine Kofler

Course location: 83 607 Holzkirchen (30 km south of Munich)